

CUSTOMER ADVISORY

MIA CFS STORAGE CHARGES - Posted Date: May 15th, 2024

Dear Valued Customer,

We are writing to inform you of an important update to our storage fee policy, effective June 1st. To better align with industry standards and continue providing excellent service, our new policy will be as follows:

Free Storage Period: 5 free business days

Storage Fee After Free Period: $50 per day (including weekends)

This update applies to all new shipments received on or after June 1st. Shipments already in storage as of this date will continue under the terms applicable when they were received.

We understand that changes to service terms can impact your operations, and we are committed to assisting you during this transition.

Thank you for your continued support and understanding.
